Your Mares – view a list of your mares. You can edit your mares and change stallions – please let us know if you change stallions. Also, if a mare is not on the app there is a chance that she has not been booked with us – please check. You can't add new mares here, go to Add Unallocated Mare.

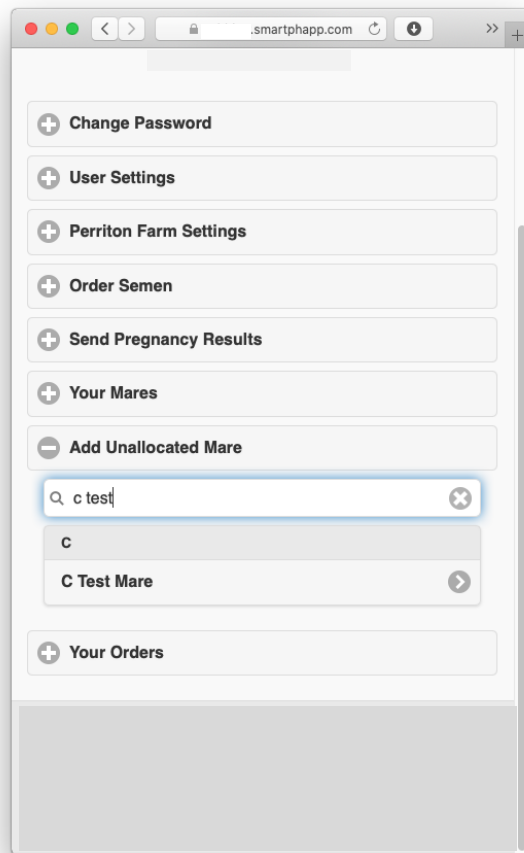

Add Unallocated Mares – this is where you will find mares that have previously been booked with us or other studs using the app, but we did not know where they would be based for the season. Type the name of your mare in the filter items box and select her to add her to your group of mares. If she's not found here, you can choose add new mare and enter her details yourself. If you add a new mare, please let us know, as she needs to have a valid booking before we can supply semen. See below the process for adding an unallocated mare.
